ITINERARY

Day 1 Dunedin — Catlins Coast

Collect your rental car and head off through Balclutha to The Catlins. The coast encompasses the area from Kaka Point in the North to Fortrose in the South — a place where time has stood still. Some of the world's rarest marine animals are found here — three penguin species, Hooker's Sea Lions, Hector's Dolphins, Elephant Seals, and NZ Fur Seals, and many species of seabirds. Enroute highlights include Nugget Point Lighthouse, Surat Bay, Florence Hill Lookout, and Cathedral Caves. Overnight accommodation at Mohua Park Eco Cottage. D

Day 2 Catlins Coast — Invercargill — Stewart Island

Make your way out of The Catlins via Porpoise Bay and Curio Bay to Slope Point the southernmost point of the South Island and Waipapa Point famous for its lighthouse and bent over trees shaped by the wind, enroute to Invercargill Airport. Board your scenic flight to Stewart Island. Evening guided kiwi-spotting at world class Mamaku Point Conservation and Ecological Reserve. Overnight accommodation at Rakiura Retreat. B

Day 3 Stewart Island

Short water taxi ride to Ulva Island — the southern-most bird sanctuary in the world. Half day walk/Bird watching discovering the unique, rare and endangered birds and plants at close quarters. Have your camera at the ready as you amble amongst a beautiful botanical forested garden alive with birdsong. Overnight accommodation at Rakiura Retreat. B

Day 4 Stewart Island — Bluff — Invercargill

Shuttle transfer to Ferry terminal. Farewell Stewart Island - crossing Foveaux Straits by ferry to Bluff. Connect with your coach transfer to Invercargill.
